Jamesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 8. JAMESVILLE, WIS., FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1864. NUMBER 52.

THE NEWS.

Our dispatches to-day contain several items of information, confirming, what every one had reason to suspect, i. e., that the rebel authorities are fully impressed with the importance of the great conflict that is soon to come off in Virginia, and are hurrying forward every available man from every outpost and garrison in the South, to meet the well-trained legions which Grant is marshalling for the combat.

Beauregard, it is said, is on his way to Richmond with a large number of his troops, other evidences are abundant that the rebels do not under estimate the stakes for which they are playing and are straining every nerve to win. The boast of Jeff. Davis recently made that "he could defend Virginia for twenty years," will soon be tested in a more severe and terrible manner than he ever dreamed of when it was made. The telegraph and the newspaper reporters are silent as to what preparations are being made by our Government to insure a victory when the momentous day does arrive. We may rest assured, however, that they are ample, and such as would inspire the nation with confidence and hope, if it were prudent to give all these details of preparation to the public eye. The indications now are that a collision cannot long be delayed, and public anxiety will soon be relieved by a knowledge of the facts.

If the dispatch from Madison, Indiana, be true, it will be seen that the action of the Western Governors in calling out hundred day troops for extra service, and to do garrison duty, was not at all premature or ill-advised. They will be needed.

It seems Frank Blair has been rewarded for his assault upon Mr. Chase, by being freshly commissioned a Major General, hence the rumor of a rupture in the Cabinet in our afternoon dispatches. It would take a large number of Blairs to fill the place of Mr. Chase, either in the Cabinet, or in the affections of the people.

The Fort Pillow Massacre.

An old resident of this city, now in the Mount City Hospital, writes a letter to a friend here in relation to the wounded at the Fort Pillow massacre, from which we are permitted to make the following extract:

"I would inform you of the condition of the wounded at the late massacre at Fort Pillow, but you have undoubtedly read it over and over again in the newspapers, but if you are at all like me, as regards what you read, you have not believed one half of it; but allow me to state what I have seen and heard from the men themselves, that there is no exaggeration in the newspaper accounts. It is really heart rendering to hear the accounts from the men both whites and blacks; and the most galling wounds I have ever seen and there is not one of these but that were wounded in from four to six places. Two of the men that were buried alive are now in the hospital here.

The sand and dirt was still to be found in the hair of their heads when they arrived.

The committee of investigation sent from Washington are now here taking testimony. They succeeded in finding out enough, but what action will be taken in the matter yet remains to be seen. Perhaps they will return to Washington and have a vote of censure passed upon Forrest and his gang of cut-throats, with the addition that if they commit the second offence and are captured, they will be compelled to take advantage of the Amnesty act. We shall see."

STATE NEWS.

THE GREEN Bay Advocate says there have been two deaths in town this week from diphtheria—a disease from which, in a fatal form, we have heretofore entirely escaped. It also states that the County Commissioners have purchased of Wm. D. Colburns the three vacant lots on the corner of Jefferson and Cherry Street as a site for the Court House and County Jail which they propose to build. The price paid was $2800.—The Beloit Journal tells us that at a wool-growers' meeting held at Beloit on the 23d day of April 1864, J. G. Potter was chosen Chairman, and Lewis Clark was chosen Secretary. James W. Wood was chosen Corresponding Secretary. Said meeting was held, according to previous notice, for the purpose of petitioning Congress to protect wool by a reasonable tariff. It was resolved that petitions be circulated for signatures throughout Southern Wisconsin and northern Illinois. Adjourned to Saturday the 21st day of May next, to meet in the Council Room at Beloit at 12 o'clock noon, with a request for all to come in, in the vicinity mentioned, that feel interested.

—The La Crosse Republican records the fact that nearly all the farmers in La Crosse county have finished wheat sowing. George Willey, one of the strongest farmers in the county, has put in 240 bushels of wheat, and will add 100 bushels of oats this week.—The Milwaukee News says that on Monday evening, musters of vessels in that port were despairing of getting men to man their drafts.—Dr. Mason C. Darling, one of the oldest and most prominent citizens of Fond du Lac, is about to remove to Chicago. He settled there in 1838, was post master when the entire revenue was only $20; was the first president of the village corporation; was the first mayor of the city; has been a member of the Territorial Council, a member of the Constitutional Convention, and a Representative in Congress.

THE RED RIVER EXPEDITION.—A private letter to us from a Milwaukeean in New Orleans, says the White Wisconsin, contains the following in regard to the Red River battles:

"You see Gen. Banks has had a severe engagement with the rebels in western Louisiana. The first day his advanced forces were driven in, with heavy loss, but when united we whipped them terribly. In this there is no mistake. The supply train was badly used up which forced our forces to hold on, and they were unable to follow up their advantage.

"I had a letter from Gen. Banks, who says he is in fine spirits, and intends at once to take the offensive again."

RE-UNION OF WISCONSIN ARMY OFFICERS.—Last night a most pleasant re-union of Wisconsin officers was held at the rooms of General Starkweather. Gen. ## ARREST OF A RUNAWAY COUPLE.

Chief of Police Cleveland yesterday received a promissory order from a Wisconsin officer dated at Loka City, to arrest S. A. Lemon, who was on board the Davenport, and hold him until he could come up on the next boat. Mr. Cleveland consequently watched the passengers who came off the Davenport and soon found his man, who was accompanied by a lady, and was about to get aboard the cars. He arrested Mr. Lemon quietly, and told him he would have to take him as he had received an order to that effect.

Mr. Lemon protested that that was hard treatment, as all that he had done was getting married to a girl at Prairie du Chien, against the will of her father, and running away with her, and that the "old man" had doubtless sent the officer in pursuit of them.—Only this, and nothing more.

The purported Mrs. Lemon also declared that such was the case. But the orders were promissory, and so man and wife, if such they were, separated—she going to the Merchant's and he to a cold and odoriferous cell at the Station House, very different from a bridal bed, to await for the Key City. What the upshot of the affair was we could not learn, as the Key City did not arrive until midnight. St. Paul press.

A Voice from the Thirteenth.

NASHVILLE, April 22, 1864.

Messrs. Editors:—I am no writer, and probably my few words will not be very interesting to your readers; but I cannot be silent when I see such slanders heaped upon the members of the 13th Wis. Vet. Vols., as some unknown friend has taken occasion to do through the Gazette. I think, however, he hardly deserves the name of soldier's friend. He signs himself "Impartial Justice." He says, "the boys of the 13th are not entitled to the local bounties." He carries the idea that we have never done the Government any good, and that we re-enlisted on account of the large bounty offered to veterans.

If Mr. "Impartial Justice" thinks he would like to be a soldier, let him enlist in the 13th, march and do duty by the side of us, and he will say that he has not been half paid for the service he has done the Government. I think if he had been with us through our long and weary marches, and been exposed as much as we have, he would think he was entitled to even a larger bounty.

If the city of Jamesville does not want to pay the veterans of the 13th any bounty, let it pay it to recruits to save the draft. Did not the veterans help to fill your quota, and did you not refuse to pay them a bounty simply because they were fast, and could not be transferred to other localities where the people did think enough of the veterans to pay them their justly earned bounties? If we are ever again called upon to re-enlist, Jamesville will have no veterans to raise a bounty for.

Says "Impartial Justice": "The 13th has done nothing, compared with the soldiers of the Iron Brigade and Twelfth Battery." We do not claim to have done as much fighting as the Iron Brigade, but we have done our duty, and served our country as faithfully as they. As for the 12th Battery, where have they done any more fighting than we? Where have they distinguished themselves more than the 13th? The 3d Cavalry was also brought up against the 13th, as having done more than we ever did. I presume our worthy friend has more sympathy for that regiment than for ours, as a great number of his comperend friends are undoubtedly in it, as the rate last fall will show.

When I first enlisted I was accredited to the city of Jamesville, but on re-enlisting I got myself accredited to a town which has some sympathy for a soldier, and so got my bounty. There were but five in the town to act against it, and they said: "The veterans are fast; what is the use of paying them anything? They fill our quota the same without it, and we may have another call; then we will have to pay our money to save ourselves from being drafted. As long as we are safe what is the use of paying out our money? The Government has already paid them enough for re-enlisting."

Does any sensible man think the volunteer soldiers of the United States, if the war was over and they had a chance to enlist, would leave their pleasant homes and all the comforts of life for the sum of $402, or for six times that amount? No! There are but few soldiers in the army that did enlist for the bounty. They enlisted because our country, the Union, and the best Government the sun ever shone upon was in danger.

Now, if our friend "Impartial Justice" thinks we have abused him by talking thus plainly, he must not again allow his comperend thoughts to be put in print, nor say that the 13th are of no account, because they have not done as much fighting as some other regiments. We have done all that we have been called upon to do. If we are ever called upon to fight, we will strive to uphold the good name that the Wisconsin boys have always won on the battlefield. We will assuredly do our best to bring no disgrace on the city of Jamesville, and on our bounty-saving stay-at-home men.

Third, That these companies are noted for adjusting losses fairly and paying them promptly.

Fourth, That E. L. Dimock has left a few more of those beautiful calendars for 1864, blotting pads and excise laws for distribution to customers.

DISEASES OF THE EYE AND EAR.

Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, and one of the ablest operators in this country will again visit Jamesville for three days on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 12th, 13th, and 14th. Office at the Hyatt House.

The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the doctor's practice is that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

LOCAL MATTERS.

O'NEIL AND GARDNER'S TROUPE.—A dispatch dated at Madison, from the agent of O'Neil & Gardner's troupe, which met with such marked favor here, a week or two since, informs us that they will again visit this city on Monday evening next, and give an entertainment at Lappin's Hall. They will undoubtedly be greeted with a full house, as they were very warmly received on their previous visit.

THE NEW BAPTIST MISSION CHAPEL.

This structure is now just assuming graceful proportions. The roof is on and a portion of the cornice, and the work of siding has already commenced. Its dimensions are 30 by 42 1/2 feet, and when completed will accommodate two hundred persons. The taste which has designed and the enterprise which has executed this work are worthy of all commendation, and the good which will be accomplished through the instrumentality of it will be as far-reaching and enduring as eternity itself.

OUR MORNING DISPATCHES.

Prospects of a Great Battle!

REBELS REINFORCING LEE.

A CANARD ABOUT THE CABINET!

Further from Banks' Department!

BEAUREGARD COMING TO RICHMOND!

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—House. Consideration of the tax bill resumed.

Fernando Wood of N. Y., offered an amendment repealing the act which imposes a tax on foreign liquors on hand.

Washington, of Ill. moved that the tax on domestic liquors on hand be 50 cts per gallon. These amendments which were reserved for future action are being acted upon. Tax bill passed and house adjourned.

It is said by members of the executive committee, that there is no probability of postponing the time for the Baltimore Convention.

Special to the N. Y. Times.—Facts show the determined energy with which the rebels are conscripting troops in Virginia, continue to multiply. The President to-day received dispatches from Gen. Butler, stating his belief that rebel forces are withdrawing from North Carolina and hastening to reinforce Lee. As far as heard from, up to eleven o'clock to-night nothing of much importance transpired at the front. Indications are that a collision cannot long be delayed. Burnside left yesterday by special conveyance to join his command and the signal corps that has been stationed here through the winter, left their camp a day or two since for the army. It is now generally understood here that Lee will endeavor to bring on the fight without leaving his entrenchments.

World's Washington special reports a rumor in the cabinet that Secy. Chase has abandoned his past feeling of being directly insulted, by the assignment of Blair to the command of the 17th corps.

A correspondent says it is suspected a breach exists so wide it can't be healed. The above given for what it is worth. It looks very much like a canard.

FROM BANKS' DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—A letter received to day from Admiral Porter pronounces that Banks' recent expedition was a disastrous failure, besides over 30 pieces of artillery, large quantities of small arms, several hundred wagons and a first class gunboat, the Eastport, nearly 400 prisoners have been lost, and in addition to this, the Paymaster's safe, containing a million dollars, was captured by the enemy. Reports in circulation that Banks is to be superseded by Sickles are untrue. Gen. Franklin Stone, whose neglect and carelessness contributed greatly to the disasters in Louisiana, will be relieved and probably court-martialed.

Herold's Grand Re-Enlistment, despatch of the 10th states that our total loss is 3400, of which the killed probably will not exceed 400. Emory's division of the 19th corps, had 61 killed and 411 wounded. Missing increase this to 600. Lee's cavalry lost 600. The report said that Magruder was between Sharpsport and General Steele, with 11,000 men.

FROM THE SOUTH.

New York, April 29.—World's special says it is understood that Northern and Washington, North Carolina, are safe, as the rebels are concentrating a guard against any possible flank movement by York or James rivers.

The Herold has letters from the fleet off Wilmington the 22d stating that Beauregard went through Wilmington the 21st with a large number of troops on his way to Richmond.

The enemy is sending all the men it can to the rebel capital.

The Herold's Yorktown letter of the 26th states that a rebel deserter reports considerable panic at Richmond and Petersburg.

Rebels having momentary expectation of an approach of one or more strong union columns. Many of the inhabitants are moving south and the impression gains generally that the present campaign will eventuate in success, and Richmond fall.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

The New York Tribune's Washington special says:

No collision with the enemy in Virginia is likely to occur for many days.

The Herold's Martinsburg, (Va.) despatch says: "A force of rebels is reported concentrating at Front Royal—how large is not known. There are some indications that it will commence offensive operations on the lowering of the Shenandoah river, which is now greatly swollen. The Potomac is also exceedingly high.

The World's Army despatch says: "The weather is pleasant. The mud has turned into dust, which is kept down by an occasional dash of April rain."

The enemy shows increased signs of activity. Yesterday they filled Hazel river, with logs, to endeavor to sweep away our bridges. The scheme failed.

Mosby's guerrillas in quite strong force appeared near our lines yesterday.

No civilians are allowed to go to the front.

It is estimated by competent judges that Lee has now massed under his immediate control on the Rappahannock about 65,000 troops. Others estimate as high as 80,000.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

REBELS IN INDIANA!

FROM RED RIVER EXPEDITION!

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Resolution House Naval Committee to-day declares it essential to the service that a navy yard be at once established at some point at the West. Some of the Committee favor Cairo, others for a site higher up the river.

New York, April 29.—Tribune's Special says that Gen. Butler will take the field. That Gen. Smith was ordered to report to him, and that Gilmore and Smith will command corps under Butler when the right time arrives.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, P. M.—A Union convention assembled here to-day.

A resolution was adopted that electors at large be instructed to support Abraham Lincoln for the Presidency and oppose all efforts to postpone the Baltimore convention. It is believed the hardest blow that could be indicted upon the rebels would be the certainty of the re-election of Mr. Lincoln.

FROM MADISON, IND.

MADISON, IND., April 29.—A gang of guerrillas crossed the Indiana line night before last, and burned a trading boat a short distance below the city and stole a flock of sheep and some cattle.

FROM RED RIVER.

St. Louis, April 29

The Isle of Man is governed by a petty parliament consisting of twenty-four persons, filling up all vacancies for themselves. This body, called the House of Keys, has recently been quarreling with the people of the island capital, Douglas. The worthy persons, some nine thousand in number, being a nation that they could manage a municipality, petitioned the House of Keys, and were sharply snubbed for wishing to transfer "royal authority" to mere tradesmen.
